

R. We will tell the glorious deeds of the Lord, the wonders he has done

1. Hear my teaching, O my people;
incline your ears to the words | of my mouth.
I will open my mouth | in a parable;
I will pour forth mysteries | from of old,
such as we have heard and known,
which our fore | bears have told us. R
2. We will not hide from their children, but will recount to genera | tions to come the praises of the Lord and his power and the wonderful works | he has done.
He laid a solemn charge on Jacob and made it a | law in Israel,
which he commanded them to | teach their children. R
3. That the generations to come might know and the children | yet unborn,
that they might tell it | to their children;
so that they might put their | trust in God
and not forget the deeds of God,
but keep | his commandments. R
